- (d) in the case of a contravention specified in section 42(a)(iv), in the relevant Anti-money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Code; or
- (e) in the case of a contravention specified in section 42(a)(v), in the relevant Act, regulations or code.

(4) A violation that is committed or continued on more than one day constitutes a separate violation for each day on which it is committed or continued.

(5) The Commission shall not take disciplinary action against a financial institution in respect of a disciplinary violation committed more than two years prior to the date upon which it sends a notice to the financial institution under section 44.

(6) For greater certainty, a disciplinary violation is not an offence and, accordingly, section 32 of the Penal Code does not apply in respect of a disciplinary violation.

(7) If the conduct or omission that constitutes a disciplinary violation also constitutes an offence, the taking of disciplinary action against a financial institution does not prevent the financial institution being also prosecuted for the offence.

(Substituted by Act 8 of 2010)

Notice of intention to take disciplinary action

44. (1) If it intends to take disciplinary action against a financial institution, the Commission shall send a notice of its intention to the financial institution which—

- (a) sets out the alleged disciplinary violation and the relevant facts surrounding the violation;
- (b) sets out the amount of the penalty that it intends to impose for the violation; and
- (c) advises the financial institution of his right to make written representations to the Commission in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) A financial institution that receives a notice under subsection (1) may, within twenty eight days of the date upon which he receives the notice, send written representations to the Commission disputing the facts of the alleged disciplinary violation or the amount of the administrative penalty or both.

(Substituted by Act 8 of 2010)

Disciplinary action

45. (1) After the expiration of twenty eight days from the date that it sent a notice under section 44 to a financial institution, the Commission may take disciplinary action against that financial institution by sending it a penalty notice stating—

- (a) the disciplinary violation in respect of which the notice is issued;
- (b) the date on which notice of intention to take disciplinary action in respect of that violation was sent to the financial institution;

- (c) the amount of the administrative penalty for the violation, which shall not exceed the amount specified in the notice sent under section 44;
 - (d) a date, not less than twenty eight days after the date of the penalty notice, by which the financial institution must pay the penalty to the Commission; and
 - (e) that if the financial institution does not pay the penalty or exercise its rights of appeal under section 50, it will be considered to have committed the violation and accordingly liable for the penalty set out in the notice.
- (2) Before taking disciplinary action against a financial institution under subsection (1), the Commission shall consider any written representations that it has received from the financial institution and, where it receives such representations, it must provide reasons for the action that it takes.
- (3) A financial institution that receives a penalty notice under subsection (1) shall pay the penalty stated to the Commission on or before the date specified in the notice or appeal the notice under section 50.
- (4) If the financial institution pays the administrative penalty, it is considered to have committed the violation and the disciplinary action is over.
- (5) A financial institution that neither pays the administrative penalty nor appeals the notice within twenty eight days is considered to have committed the disciplinary violation and is liable for the penalty.
- (6) If the Commission imposes an administrative penalty on a financial institution, the Commission shall, after the imposition of the penalty has become final, advertise the imposition of the penalty by publication in the Gazette.
- (7) The regulations may provide for—
- (a) the procedures to be adopted by the Commission when taking disciplinary action against a financial institution; and
 - (b) the determination of, or the method of determining, the amount of the administrative penalty for a disciplinary violation.

(Inserted by Act 8 of 2010)

Recovery of administrative penalties

46. (1) An administrative penalty imposed under this Part constitutes a debt to the Commission and may be recovered in the Court.

(2) The Commission may, after the imposition of a penalty has become final, issue a certificate certifying the unpaid amount of any debt referred to in subsection (1) and the registration of the certificate in the Court has the same effect as a judgment of the Court for a debt of the amount specified in the certificate together with the costs of registration.

- (b) if different, the person to whom it relates.

(2) If the Commission is of the opinion that any advertisement, statement, brochure or other similar document issued, or to be issued, by or on behalf of a financial institution is misleading, contains an incorrect statement of fact, breaches a Regulatory Code or is contrary to the public interest, it may—

- (b) authorise the financial institution in writing to issue the document with such changes as the Commission may specify.

(2) An appeal against the refusal of the Commission to grant a licence or against a decision of the Commission to grant a licence subject to conditions, may only be made on a question of law.

(3) Unless the Court otherwise determines, an application for leave to appeal, an appeal and an application for judicial review, does not operate as a stay of the decision of the Commission in respect of which the application or appeal is made.

(4) Upon hearing an appeal, the Court may—

(a) dismiss the appeal; or

(b) remit the matter back to the Commission for further consideration with such directions as it may consider fit.

Regulations

51. The Governor acting on the advice of Cabinet may, after consultation with the Commission, make regulations generally for giving effect to the provisions of this Act and specifically for prescribing anything required or permitted to be prescribed by this Act. (Amended by Act 9 of 2011)

(2) A Regulatory Code may make different provision in relation to persons, cases or circumstances of different descriptions.

(3) The Commission may, by notice published in the Gazette, amend, add to or replace a Regulatory Code.

(4) Before publishing a notice under subsection (3) the Commission shall—

(a) ensure that a draft of the proposed amendment, addition to or replacement of the Code is sent to, or can reasonably be expected to come to the notice of, every financial institution affected by the notice specifying the period within which written representations are to be provided to the Commission; and

(7) Without limiting subsection (1)—

(a) a Regulatory Code may provide for penalties not exceeding $5,000 for the breach of a provision of the Code; and

(b) the regulations may prescribe matters that shall be, or may be, provided for in the Regulatory Codes.

Guidelines

53. (1) The Commission may issue Guidelines with respect to the procedures to be followed by and the conduct expected of financial institutions in the operation of their licensed businesses and with respect to any other matter concerning this Act.

(2) The Guidelines may make different provision in relation to different persons, circumstances or cases.

(3) The Commission must publish the Guidelines and any amendments thereto in the Gazette.

(4) Failure to follow guidelines issued under this section shall not, of itself, render a person liable to proceedings of any kind, but such failure may be taken into account by the Court or the Commission, as the case may be, in determining whether there has been a contravention of this Act, a regulatory enactment or a Regulatory Code.

(5) Without limiting subsection (1) the regulations may prescribe matters that shall be, or may be, provided for in Guidelines.

Offence provisions

54. A person who, with intent to deceive or for any purpose of this Act or a financial services enactment, provides any information, makes any representation or submits any return that he knows to be false or materially misleading or does not believe to be true commits an offence.
