[20 December 1950]

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Consular Conventions Act.

Power of Consular officers in relation to property in Montserrat of deceased persons

2. (1) Where any person who is a national of a State to which this section applies is named as executor in the will of a deceased person disposing of property in Montserrat, or is otherwise a person to whom a grant of representation to the estate in Montserrat of a deceased person may be made, then if the Court is satisfied, on the application of a Consular officer of the said state, that the said national is not resident in Montserrat, and if no application for a grant of such representation is made by a person duly authorised by power of attorney to act for him in that behalf, the Court shall make to that officer any such grant of representation to the estate of the deceased as would be made to him if he were so authorised as aforesaid.

(2) Where any person who is a national of a State to which this section applies—

- (a) is entitled to any money or other property in Montserrat forming part of the estate of a deceased person, or to receive payment in Montserrat of any money becoming due on the death of a deceased person; or
- (b) is among the persons to whom any money or other property of a deceased person may under any Act, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Act, be paid or delivered without grant of probate or other proof of title;

then if the said national is not resident in Montserrat, a Consular officer of that State shall have the like right and power to receive and give a valid discharge for any such money or property as if he were duly authorised by power of attorney to act for him in that behalf:

Provided that, no person shall be authorised or required by this subsection to pay or deliver any money or property to a Consular officer if it is within his knowledge that any other person in Montserrat has been expressly authorised to receive that money or property on behalf of the said national.

(3) Notwithstanding any rule of law or practice applicable to Montserrat providing that in the case of a minority or a life interest administration must be granted either to a trust corporation or to not less than two individuals; or that additional personal representatives must be appointed in the case of a minority or a life interest, administration of an estate may in any case be granted by virtue of this section to a Consular officer alone.

(4) Notwithstanding any rule of law or practice applicable to Montserrat sureties shall not be required to an administration bond given by a Consular officer upon the grant of administration by virtue of this section.

Supplementary provisions as to section 2

3. Notwithstanding any rule of law conferring immunity or privilege in respect of the official acts and documents of Consular officers, a Consular officer shall not be entitled to any immunity or privilege in respect of any act done by virtue of powers conferred on him by or under section 2, or in respect of any document for the time being in his possession relating thereto.

Restriction of power of entry in relation to Consular offices

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section a Consular officer of a State to which this section applies shall not be entered by a police officer or other person acting in the execution of any warrant or other legal process or in the exercise of powers conferred by or under any enactment (whether passed before or after the commencement of this Act), or otherwise, except with the consent of the Consular officer in charge of that office or, if that consent is withheld or cannot be obtained, with the consent of a Secretary of State:

Provided that, the foregoing provisions of this subsection shall not apply in relation to any entry effected—

- (a) in pursuance of any provision contained in any Act relating to Fire Brigades and conferring on such Brigades power to enter premises for the purpose of extinguishing fire or any other enactment making provision corresponding with the aforesaid provision;
- (b) by a police officer having reasonable cause to believe that a crime involving violence has been or is being or is about to be committed in the Consular office;
- (c) by any person entitled to enter by virtue of any easement, contract or other private right.

(2) This section shall not apply to any Consular office which for the time being is in the charge of a Consular officer who is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Overseas Territories or is not a national of the State by which that office is maintained. (Amended by Act 9 of 2011)

(3) For the purposes of this section the expression “Consular office” means any building or part of a building which is exclusively occupied for the purposes of the official business of a Consular officer.

Mode of paying compensation

5. (1) In the application of section 19(a) of the Land Acquisition Act, the compensation payable in respect of the acquisition of any land held exclusively by the Sending State for consular use shall be paid at the selling rate of exchange most favourable to such Sending State at the time when such land was acquired.

(2) For the purposes of this section the expression “Sending State” means the government of any foreign State with which a Consular Convention has been concluded by Her Majesty providing for matters for which provision is made in section 2 or 4.

Application of sections 2 and 4
