

CHAPTER 263.CITRATE OF LIME

(9th May, 1907

5/1907

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Citrate of Lime Ordinance. | Short title |
| 2. Chalk, whiting, or lime shall, when imported for use in the manufacture of citrate of lime, be admitted free of import duty. | Chalk, whiting, or lime exempt from import duty. |
| 3. Before any chalk, whiting, or lime is admitted free under the provisions of the preceding section, the person importing the same shall furnish the Treasurer with a certificate, signed by himself, specifying that such chalk, whiting, or lime has been imported for use in the manufacture of citrate of lime. | Certificate to be given to Treasurer. |
| 4. Any person who, without the written permission of the Treasurer, sells any chalk, whiting or lime imported free of import duty under the provisions of this Ordinance, or otherwise disposes of or uses the same for a purpose other than that specified in the certificate required by section 3, shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance, and shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding four hundred and eighty dollars. | Penalty |
| 5. There shall be paid into the Treasury of the Colony by the exporter thereof, upon the exportation of any citrate of lime manufactured in the Colony, an export duty of one shilling on every hundredweight, and at the same rate for any greater or less quantity | Export duty |

CHAPTER 276.

MANUFACTURE OF PRESERVES.

(20th April, 1897.)

4/1897

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Manufacture of Preserves Ordinance.

Short title.

2. Upon the exportation from the Colony of any preserves, that is to say, jam or preserved fruits, made or prepared herein, there shall be paid to the exporter such sum as shall be approved to the satisfaction of the Treasurer to have been paid into the Treasury of the Colony as duty of customs in respect of any sugar used in the Colony in the manufacture or preparation of the preserves so exported.

Rebate upon exportation of preserves of local manufacture.