S.R.O.15/1956

(27th February, 1873.)

1. This Act may be cited as the Ordinances (Authentication) Act. Short title.
2. All bills passed by the Legislative Council shall be authenticated by the signature of the person who presides at the sitting of the Council when such bills are passed : Authentication of bills.

Provided that if the person so presiding is, through illness, absence from the Colony or otherwise, unable to authenticate any such bill, it shall be lawful for such bill to be authenticated by the signature of the Administrator.
3. When the Administrator assents to any bill passed by the Legislative Council, his assent shall be recorded in the usual form on an authenticated manuscript or printed copy, or on an authenticated copy partly in print and partly in manuscript. Recording of assent.
4. Every Ordinance which shall be passed by the Legislative Council, shall, immediately after it is passed, be printed in fair and legible type, and three impressions, or copies, of the same shall be struck off for the purpose hereinafter mentioned. Ordinances to be printed.
5. The said printed impressions, or copies, shall be carefully compared, by a clerk of the Legislative Council, with the original bill which has passed such Council, and, after the same shall have been verified by him to be exact counterparts, shall be certified, by such clerk, under his hand, so to be; and such certified counterparts shall each be held to be the original Ordinance, and may be referred to, and shall be received in evidence, without further proof. Clerk to verify printed copies.
6. The Administrator may, at the close of each session, cause to be printed as many copies of each Ordinance passed by Distribution of printed Ordinances.
